

ANNOUNCEMENTS Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

This semester we will pray the Angelus at Noon Tuesday-Friday. This is a good way to pause in your busy schedule and remind yourself that you are always in the presence of God.

WE will continue to pray Night prayer after Mass on Sundays at 7:15.

Our class this semester is Theology of the Body. It will begin on Wednesday Feb 2 at 6:00pm. This class is an 8-part class and will be held in the Blair Room in the LLC. Each class we will view a 30-minute DVD by Christopher West and then move into a discussion. The cost of the class is $15 to cover cost of the materials. However if you wish to not purchase the book the class is free.

Our celebration of First Friday is February 4th at 5:30 pm. WE will begin with Adoration then Fr. Jon Hullinger will give a talk on 'Jesus as Scapegoat'. Coffee and desert will follow in the Catacombs Coffee Room.

Just a reminder KCCSC is around the corner. We will meet at the Holidome on Friday Feb 11 between 4 and 5pm. For those of you who received a partial scholarship to attend this year we do ask that you write a short paragraph about your experience. These paragraphs will be compiled into a thank you letter to the alumni who donated the $1,000 for students to attend the conference this year. Please be prepared to email these paragraphs in the week following the conference.

Roman Missal—New Words...deeper meaning, same Mass. You may have heard that there will be changes to what we hear and say at Mass. Mass will remain the same, but some of the words will be different. The changes officially begin Nov. 27, 2011. Here at the Center we will begin educating all Center members on the changes through a series of articles that will be read before Mass and then posted on our website at www.wucatholic.com. We hope to provide a brief but deep explanation of how and why the texts are changing.

The revisions to the Mass texts, the prayers and responses that we use during Mass will give deeper meaning to the celebration. Over the following months, we hope to help you understand these revisions so that we all will know how to respond at Mass.

Tonight is the 4th Sunday in Ordinary Time.

Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time A - January 30, 2011

For the Church: that we may be transformed by God's Spirit and embrace the reversal of self justification and self fulfillment of our society by walking humbly and finding our strength in Christ
LET US PRAY

For all disciples: that we may recognize the Blessedness given us by the Spirit and manifest it in our lives through loving sacrifice, deeds of justice, and words of compassion
LET US PRAY

For all who are burdened by guilt and remorse: that God will heal and renew their spirits so that they can live freely as God's children
LET US PRAY

For conversion of our hearts: that we may walk humbly and honestly in God's presence each day
LET US PRAY

For all who are well born, educated, and influential: that we may place our gifts and talents in the service of God's reign
LET US PRAY

For the members of legislatures: that their hearts may be sensitive to the needs of the poor and voiceless as they formulate new policies and budgets
LET US PRAY

For the growth of peace in the mid-east: that all hearts may be open to new beginnings through the end of violence and the renewal of dialogue
LET US PRAY

For those we have been asked to pray for and the prayers that we now hold in silence... LET US PRAY
